Call for Nominations

2024 FBD Outstanding Educator Award

Complete Award Application Materials Due: September 30, 2023, 5:00 p.m. CST

Award Overview

The Association of Collegiate Marketing Educators (ACME), an affiliate of the Federation of Business Disciplines (FBD), is a professional marketing organization founded to encourage exploration and development of superior marketing practices from academic and practitioner perspectives. In line with ACME's objectives, the ACME Outstanding Educator Award honors academic faculty for their outstanding contributions to marketing education. The award recipient will be recognized at the ACME Annual Conference, to be held in Galveston, TX, April 10 to 13, 2024 (please click HERE to see the complete Call for Papers).

Eligibility

Nominees must have a terminal degree and be current and active ACME members, in good standing. Nominees also need to demonstrate active involvement in the association for at least three out of the most recent five years. Current ACME officers are not eligible for consideration.

Submission Process

Candidates for the award can nominate themselves or be nominated by an ACME member, with the candidate's written consent. Nominations and all supporting materials should be submitted electronically via the EasyChair online submission system by September 30, 2023, at 5:00 pm CST. The elements of the nomination package include the following

1. Statement of Eligibility (limited to two pages)
A narrative statement details the applicant's eligibility for consideration for the FBD Outstanding Educator Award. This statement should describe the nominee's teaching philosophy, qualities, and strengths as an educator, and identify specific activities, techniques, and stylistic elements that are part of the nominee's excellence exhibited in her/his marketing education career.

2. Curriculum Vita.
A detailed curriculum vita, with items under each heading/subheading arranged in reverse chronological order.
3. Highlights of Teaching, Research, and Service (limited to three pages).
Highlights of the candidate's teaching, research, and service performance include awards, recognitions, innovations, and outstanding contributions.
4. Highlights of Involvement with ACME (limited to one page).
Highlights and periods of the candidate's involvement with ACME. Be sure to include highlights that demonstrate active involvement in the association for at least three out of the most recent five years.

Submit one consolidated PDF file of the above-listed nomination materials by September 30, 2023, at 5:00 pm CST, via the EasyChair online submission link (CLICK HERE).

Name your file “[ACME FBD OE] [space] [your first name] [space] [your last name].”

Review Process

The selection committee will be appointed by the ACME officers and chaired by the ACME Vice President for Membership and Associate Program Chair. The selection committee will review all nomination materials and select one individual to be honored at the ACME Annual Conference, to be held in Galveston, TX, from April 10 to 13, 2024 (see ACME Website for more information).

The award recipient will be notified by January 20, 2024.

Requirements for Award Recipient

The award recipient is required to:

- register for the 2024 ACME Conference by March 11, 2024, tentatively,
- attend the conference,
- attend the FBD Award Dinner on April 10, 2024, and
- attend the ACME Awards luncheon and business meeting on April 10, 2024 in Galveston, TX.
